

December 28, 1950

Stanley J. Pavék

Funeral services were held here in the Catholic church Saturday at 9:00 a. m., for Stanley J. Pavék, 28, of Claremont, who died in the Minneapolis Veterans hospital, Wednesday of leukemia.

The Rev. Fr. E. J. Coyne officiated and burial was in Groton cemetery, where the Harold Feser American Legion Post conducted graveside services.

Survivors include his wife; a son, Stan Lee; a daughter, Sherry Lynn; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Pavék, and two sisters, Mary Lynn Pavék and Mrs. Embury J. Stohr (Helen), all of Claremont.

Mr. Pavék had been a Claremont resident for 14 years and formerly operated a confectionary there. He was born November 1, 1922, in Lidgerwood, N. D., and married Shirley Pulfrey in 1944. He served in the Navy from 1942 to 1945 as an aviation radioman. He graduated from high school at Claremont in 1939 and during and after his school days was known as a brilliant athlete in basketball and baseball.

The Paetznick Funeral Home was in charge of funeral arrangements.